All these ships are being dismantled under water, except the Partizanka and the Dalmacija.

The salvaging of the 3,000-ton Sirijus, which was struck by a mine in Kvarner Bay in 1948, is being studied. A 65-meter submarine of 800 tons deadweight is being salvaged in Susak Harbor. The salvaging of the Karadjordje will begin in March 1951.
